How many years did you attend Linden Hall?

Four

Describe your experience at Linden Hall. Is there something that you will always remember from your Linden Hall experience?

The one-on-one education with the teachers was an invaluable experience. It allowed me to explore educational avenues in depth. I will always remember the friends I made at Linden Hall. I'm still in contact with numerous LH women.

Did you have a favorite teacher? If so, why was he/she your favorite?

Three teachers come to mind. I really enjoyed Miss March's sense of humor; I appreciated the gentle guidance of Miss Bush; and I loved the no nonsense, adult way in which Miss Sullivan treated students.

Did you encounter a particular challenge during your years at Linden Hall? If so, what was it, and how did you handle it?

The angst of my teenage years coupled with being away from my family was difficult. Bonding with fellow students and teachers helped ease the restlessness.

If you could create your own course at Linden Hall, what would it be, and why would it have been of interest to you during your time here?

I attended Linden Hall from 1976 to 1979 when opportunities were much different than today. The courses were relevant to the time. Perhaps, one enjoyable, forward thinking class would have been how to start and run your own business.

What are your most notable interests and hobbies, and how are you pursuing them?

Travel is my number one hobby, and I'm extremely fortunate to have it as my career. My second passion is raising dogs for Canine Companions for Independence (CCI), an organization which trains dogs for handicapped people.

What college did you attend, and where?

American University for two years, and Millersville University for two years where I received my B.S. in Communications.

What is your occupation?

I'm a travel journalist.

What life lesson did you learn at Linden Hall that you use in your current day-to-day life?

Hard work pays off.

How would you describe Linden Hall to someone who's never heard of it?

I'd say LH is an all girls school in a small Pennsylvania town that offers a hands-on education and great extra-curricular activities.

JUST FOR FUN

What Blue and White team were you on?

Hummm, I don't remember. I think blue.

What book would you recommend someone read to get a better sense of who you are? Why?

I can't narrow it to one book. I love to read travelogues and funny books.

What are 3 things on your bucket list?

- 1. Learn to speak French.*
- 2. Earn a black belt in tae kwon do.*
- 3. Start a charity.*
