How did Linden Hall affect your life after graduation?

Academically speaking, Linden Hall enabled me to get into the college and program of my choice. Socially, I have various friends from several countries and continents that I never would have met otherwise. My time at Linden Hall also sparked my interest in Russian and Mandarin, which I have continued to study, and which has allowed me to travel to countries I might not have considered previously.

What piece of advice would you share with girls at Linden Hall today?

Your grades are important, but the friends you make are so much more important. Keep in touch with each other, come back and visit the school after you graduate. Good grades can take you places, but good friends will keep you from getting lonely along the way.

What did you love most about Linden Hall?

Besides the friends that I made, I most loved the various languages I was able to learn and the cultures I was able to experience as a result.

Describe your experience at Linden Hall. What is your favorite memory?

I developed a wonderful friendship with girls who were 7th and 8th graders while I was a junior and senior. They called me "Senior," and they were "my" middle-schoolers. I loved spending time with my girls; I felt like a big sister, but one they actually wanted to have! There is no one specific memory that makes that time special, but so many small moments put together that I will treasure for years to come.

How many years did you attend Linden Hall?

Two years; my junior and senior years.

What Blue and White team were you on?

White

What college did you attend?

I am about to graduate with my undergraduate degree from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA.

What is your occupation?

Currently, student. I am in the midst of looking for a job, and also a grad school for the fall of 2019.

Do you participate in professional organizations?

I grew up at Camp Conquest, a summer camp in Lancaster County, and volunteer there whenever I can throughout the year.

JUST FOR FUN

What is your favorite book?

This is a terribly difficult question to answer; I have so many. An easier question would be "who is your favorite author," to which I could reply, J.R.R. Tolkien and C.S. Lewis. I suppose if I must choose just one book, though, then I would have to say Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre...probably.

What is your favorite movie or TV show?

Another tough question. I love the Lord of the Rings trilogy, and also the Dark Knight [Batman] trilogy.

Name three things you couldn't live without.

My family
Books
Music (especially epic orchestral music)
