How did Linden Hall affect your life after graduation?

Making so many friends from Japan, Korea, China, and Taiwan at Linden Hall sparked my interest in travel and the study of languages. I went on to specialize in East Asian Language in college, studying abroad in both Korea and Japan. My passion for learning languages really developed because of the friendships I made at Linden Hall.

What piece of advice would you share with girls at Linden Hall today?

I would share with the girls that the friends they make at Linden Hall will be friends for life. This is a sisterhood, so treat each other with respect and compassion.

What do you love most about Linden Hall?

What I love most about Linden Hall is the diversity on campus. This is a multicultural micro-environment. There is so much to learn from your fellow students about different cultures, languages, hobbies, etc.

Describe your experience at Linden Hall. What is your favorite memory?

International Night was always my favorite event of the year. One of my fondest memories was singing a traditional Japanese song.

How many years did you attend Linden Hall?

4

What clubs or teams were you a member of?

Soccer, National Honor Society, Peer Editing Club, Drama, Chorus

What Blue and White team were you on?

Honestly, I don't remember. Probably Blue.

What college did you attend and where?

Dickinson College, Carlisle PA

What is your occupation?

I just finished two years of teaching ESL in Moscow.

While living in Moscow, I also worked and wrote for the Moscow Times. It was a valuable internship that has prompted me to enroll in a Master's course in Media Studies in Barcelona.
