

Mimi Stengel Cooper, '48

How did Linden Hall affect your life after graduation?

It was good preparation for college and living near a big city, Washington D.C. and then NYC.

What piece of advice would you share with girls at Linden Hall today?

Take advantage of all activities, social, athletic, and educational. Make lots of friends - no cliques.

What did you love most about Linden Hall?

The variety of girls I met from all walks of life, many varied personalities, and the drama program.

Describe your experience at Linden Hall. What is your favorite memory?

So many - May Day, Chapel, Senior Prom, Riding, Senior Play, and having my mother close by.

How many years did you attend Linden Hall?

I lived on campus for 17 years*, but I only attended my senior year as a day student.

Mimi's grandparents were Dr. F. William and Elizabeth Stengel. Dr. Stengel was head of school from 1915-1947. Her three daughters also attended Linden Hall: Mercedes Cooper Flory '71, Melissa Cooper-Anderson '73, and Mimi Cooper Snyder '76.*

What club or sports were you a member of?

I was involved with Dance Club, Dance Recital, May Day, Dramatic Club, Speech Choir, Speech Play, Bit and Spur Club, Horse Show, Home Economics Club, Fashion Show, Mimi at a Linden Hall Horse show.

Echo Typist, Business Manager Linden Leaves, Gold Four, Christmas Play, and the lead in the Senior Play.

What Blue and White team were you on?

I was on the Blue team and played on the hockey and swimming teams.

What college did you attend?

I graduated from Marjorie Webster Junior College, in Washington D.C., with honors and an associate in arts degree. I then transferred to Columbia University School of Radio and TV in New York City.

What is your occupation?

I had several jobs before marriage. I worked in summer stock with Charlton Heston, and at W. & J. Sloane as assistant to the interior decorator in NYC. I was also a water exercise instructor for 30 years at the St. Francis Community Center in Long Beach Township, NJ.

Do you participate in professional organizations?

Not really - time to reflect and have fun.

Do you participate in community service? If so, what organizations?

I've served on the Board of Trustees for Linden Hall, as a Board Member of the Junior League of Lancaster, as a Docent, Chapter, and Board Member of Lancaster Museum of Arts, Demuth, Auxiliary to Lancaster Cleft Palate Clinic, Auxiliary Fundraiser for L.G.H., and St. Joseph's Hospital, and others.

JUST FOR FUN

What is your favorite book?

I am an avid reader - so many- I do love Elin Hilderbrand; she tells a good story.

What is your favorite movie or TV show?

Again, too many, comedy, romance, etc.

Name three things you couldn't live without.

My children, their spouses, and my grandchildren.
I love my Lancaster City home.
And friends that are still with us.
